

What does PE look like at Pennington?

Intent	Implementation
PE in our school will: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- fulfil EYFS and National Curriculum requirements- be underpinned by our school's chosen Christian values and School Games Values- provide opportunities for pupils to be active, healthy and safe- inspire children to participate in, enjoy and succeed in sport- encourage the children to live a healthy, active lifestyle- be inclusive, flexible and responsive to the needs of all learners- ensure progress and help children to know how to move on their next steps- promote mindfulness and develop a healthy mental state- prepare children for life beyond Pennington and provide them with the skills to thrive- be assessed consistently and regularly, recorded half termly on the assessment grids.- provide a wide range of extra-curricular activities	We implement this by: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- inspiring, challenging and enjoying- careful, progressive planning across and budgeting school ensuring that the EYFS and National Curriculum objectives and requirements are met- high quality first teaching- ensuring PE is a focus in our daily life, at school and throughout all subjects.- ambitious enthusiastic staff and coaches applying a consistent approach to the teaching of PE using the school curriculum- supporting and encouraging regular CPD opportunities for staff- class teachers and sports coaches having a thorough knowledge of the children in their class so that their planning and teaching is responsive to the needs of that class- use of varied, differentiated skills and activities- promoting personal best and team-work alongside high expectations of behaviour and demonstration of School Games Values
Impact The impact of the above has been: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Pupils understand the importance of being active, eating well and being physically and mentally well- Pupils participate and succeed in team games and personal challenges- Pupils know where they are and what they will learn next- They will develop strong social, moral, cultural and spiritual attitudes- The subject leader and SLT have a clear whole school picture from regular assessment- All children make expected or better progress in PE	 Pennington CofE Primary School